Thank you to everyone who has visited the Book Fair and bought books. Every book sold supports your child's reading at home and raises money for school. Monday is the last day for the book fair.

On Tuesday a group of children took part in a mini-tennis festival at the Telford Tennis Centre. The children enjoyed developing their skills alongside children from other schools. The children tried really hard and were brilliantly well-behaved.

On Wednesday we had a visits from some trustees at Maxell to see reading in school.

Maxell are sponsoring the reading prizes this year and the trustees were able to see children receiving prizes for reading at home. The trustees were really impressed with how many children are so keen to read at home and develop a love of reading.
