Phonics activity Look through your books and magazines how many words can you find with the ew sound? Can you think of anymore?	Read Pirates Love Underpants (All this week's activities are loosely based around it) https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Vd8_Y1bEzA8	Draw a picture of your favourite part of Pirates Love Underpants. Can you write a sentence about your picture?	Design your own underpants. What pattern will you put on them? Use crayons, pencils or paints.	Write a menu for the pirates to eat. Be creative, will they have; Wooden leg of lamb, eye patch eggs etc.
Phonics activity Make some words cards for the ph sound phonics, phone, phantom, trophy, phase, elephant, triumph, dolphin Can you think of any more? Bury them in some soil or put them in a bag. Dig them up or pick them out one at a time and read them.	Pirates are not always nice to each other. These pirates stole from each other. Can you tell a grown up how to be kind? How would you treat a friend? Make a list of things you can do to be kind to your friends.	Can you make a treasure chest out of recycled materials? Write numbers 1-20 on cards and put them in your chest. Have a family member pull one out and see how quickly you can count out the correct number of treasures.	Find something (teddy or a jewel) to hide in your garden (or house). Make a treasure map to see if someone can use it to find your treasure. Remember to use X to mark the spot.	Use a recycled box (or other recycled materials). Can you make your own 'pants of gold'? What colour will you colour/paint it?
Phonics activity Make some word cards for words with the diagraph i_e Make 2 for each word and then play a matching or memory game. Fine, kite, shine, wife, bite, spike, mine, time	Make a pirate patch and a cutlass out of paper or recycled cardboard. Pick your favourite part of Pirates Love Underpants and act it out. Can your family tell which part it is? (You could get the whole family to dress up and act out the story!)	Walk the Plank! Lay a plank (or pieces of paper) on the floor. Write numbers counting in 2s, 5s or 10s on small pieces of paper. Put them in order on the plank and then walk the plank saying the numbers as you go. Don't fall in! Challenge: can you count backward along the plank.	Find some items that float and some that sink. Sort them. Make a boat that floats? Use recycled objects around the house. Can you see how many little figures (Lego) it can hold before sinking? Which materials worked best for making your boat? Challenge: Write an evaluation. What worked well and what could you improve?	Can you find some elastics? (don't take them out of your pants) See how far you and a family member can shoot them (best to do this outside). Use a shoe to measure how far they went. Whose went the farthest?

Phonics activity Go to https://www.phonicsplay.co.uk/resources/phase/2/buried-treasure on a tablet, phone or computer. Play buried treasure. You should be doing phase 5- go over this week's sounds (but you can go back and practise phase 3 and 4)	Pirates sometimes sent messages to each other in a bottle. Write a message to a friend or family member, put it in a bottle (old water bottle) and go for a walk to put it on their door step.	Maths Challenge – use some coins to help you. Pete the Pirate hid 17 pieces of treasure. He found 10. How many are still missing? Draw a picture to show your answer. Can you make up some more maths problems like this?	Find a stick. Make a mast and find something to make a sail (maybe some clean pants). Can you find something to use as a ship? (A box, washing basket, some blankets). Pretend you are a pirate and sail away. Where would you go? Find a place on a map (use Google if you don't have a map). How long do you think it would take you to get there?	Use the tune of 'wind the bobbin up'. Change the words to make a new pirate song for them to sing. (find the underpants, find the underpants, pull, pull, cut the strap)
Phonics activity Look through your books and magazine how many times can you find the trick words called, their, people, Mr, Mrs, Can you write a sentence using one of these words?	Draw a picture of a pirate wearing his/her favourite pair of underpants. Can you write some words to describe him/her. Write a short story about where the pirate goes and what they do.			Research about Pirates. Write down 4 (or more) interesting facts. What do they wear? Where do they live? What do they eat?
