

Children no longer need to be tested if showing symptoms, unless requested by a medical professional and if well enough can attend school/nursery.

Adults are no longer required to test and do not have to self-isolate.

Covid-19
Update
November
2022

School staff no longer have to be tested and if well enough can continue to work in school.