

Donnington Wood Infant School & Nursery

Newsletter

Friday 17th October 2025

On Monday we had lots of very smart and smiley children for school photos. The proofs were sent home yesterday. Please make sure you return any orders by the deadline.

Thank you to the parents and grandparents who attended our Phonics & Early Reading session on Tuesday. We hope you found the sessions helpful. Look out for more information about how you can support your child's phonics and reading at home.

The builders have continued to strip the old roof and begin to install the new roof structure. A number of classrooms are now watertight and we are hoping the good weather continues!
